

DIVE SITES – INNER REEF

1. SEA GRASS REEF

What: Very nice shore dive and wonderful night dive location. Marine life found on site includes healthy hard coral, schools of tropical fish, lots of Christmas tree worms and clown trigger turtles.

Where: A 5 minute boat ride located near Sea Grass Restaurant.

When: Dive on rising tide

2. DORIAN'S REEF

What: Nice and easy dive very good for beginners. It has the best visibility around Laucala. Depth ranges from 2-15m. Marine life found includes hard coral, white and black tip sharks, giant Trevally fish, different kinds of tropical fish and giant Sting rays.

Where: 7 min boat ride located just inside the barrier reef of Laucala.

When: Dive at any tide

3. FISH PATCH

What: With a depth range of 5-20m the name says it all. Marine life here includes Barracuda, sharks, Trevally, Stingrays, Lion fish, octopus, turtles and giant Maori Wrass

Where: A 5 min boat ride located near Laucala Airport it is also a 5 min swim from shore

When: Dive at incoming tide.

4. WONDERLAND

What: It is a sunken patch with healthy hard coral with a variety of soft coral. Depth ranges from 5-20m with a marine life of white tip sharks, turtles, moray eels and different types of tropical fish.

Where: Wonderland is located 5 min boat ride in front of the resort towards the main reef

When: Dive at low tide

5. CHANNEL

What: With gradual slopes at the beginning of the dive and beautiful pinnacles towards the end depths range from 15-38m. Marine life includes Clown triggers, Garden eels, Angel fish, Scorpion fish, Stone fish, Leopard Shark, a variety of Spanish dancers, Red Anemones with hard and soft coral.

Where: It is located at the barrier reef.

When: Dive at rising tide

6. TURTLE ALLEY

What: This is where divers weave between the big alleys. It has a depth ranging from 5-20m. A variety of soft coral is found on the overhangs and untouched hard coral on top of the seabed. Marine life includes also a variety of nudie branches, occasional sea snakes, white tip sharks, Leopard sharks, Red Anemones, Stone fish, Hawk fish, Emperor Angel and masses of Dragon fish.

Where: Located near Wonderland in front of the resort

When: Dive on high tide

7. GARDEN EEL

What: This site has a sandy bottom covered with Garden eels, healthy hard coral and different types of Staghorn and soft coral. Marine life consists of white tip sharks, leopard shark, Moray eels, lobsters and schools of Snapper. Depths range from 5-15m.

Where: It's a 5 min boat ride from the resort

When: Dive on incoming tide and great for night dives

8. LONG BEACH

What: An easy dive with a nice sandy bottom. Depths range from 5-15m. Very healthy hard coral found here and all different colors of soft coral. Marine life includes white tip sharks, Basket sea star in different colors, Feather sea star Crinoids clinging onto the sea fans and schools of tropical fish.

Where: A quick 5 min boat ride around the Island

When: Perfect for night dives

9. SUNRISE

What: Lovely easy drift dive along the main reef. A variety of hard coral, with turtles, lots of different tropical fish and sea slugs and white tip reef sharks. Depth ranges from 5-18m

Where: 5 min boat ride from Laucala

When: Dive on rising or falling tide

DIVE SITES - OUTER REEF

10. EAGLE RAY

What: Nice and easy drift dive with healthy hard coral, white tip sharks, turtles, trigger fish, many types of tropical fish and schools of Eagle ray.

Where: A 5 min boat ride located on the barrier reef outside Laucala Island.

When: Dive on rising tide

11. BIG BLUE

What: This is an Atoll with great wall dives. Depth ranges from 5-1000m plus a vertical drop off with a variety of soft corals, long sea whip on the side of the walls and tons of fish life everywhere. You will also see sharks and hump headed parrot fish, lots of beautiful soft coral and magnificent hard coral at 10-30m depth.

Where: This Atoll is a 10 min boat ride from Laucala

When: Dive with falling or rising tide

12 THE POINT

What: An atoll with a vertical drop off at 5-30m. Plus it's famous for black corals with Long-nose Hawk fish, beautiful hard coral at 10m. It includes soft coral, sea fans, sea whips, sharks, tuna, Trevally, King mackerel and lots of giant clam.

Where: A 10 min boat ride from the Dive Centre

When: Dive at falling tide

13 WHITE WALL

What: With a depth of 10-30m it has a wall covered with mostly soft coral which becomes a shimmering white wall at about 15m when you look at it. Marine life found on site includes sharks, tuna, Barracuda, Mackerel, Moray eel, Lion fish and the most stunning tropical fish.

Where: A 30 min boat ride from Laucala

When: Best time to dive is with a rising tide

14 BARRACUDA POINT

What: This is a wall dive with a depth ranging from 5-60m. Marine life includes of course the wonderful big Barracuda, Clown trigger fish, schools of Jack-Trevally, sharks, Eagle-Ray and different types of tropical fish with healthy hard coral

Where: Located outside the Laucala barrier reef only 15min by boat

When: Dive with incoming tide

15 SHARK ALLEY

What: An atoll with depths of 5-30m with nice swim through alleys. Amongst the sharks you will find sting ray, Eagle-ray, all kinds of tropical fish, barracuda, giant Trevally and healthy hard coral.

Where: A 10 min boat ride outside of the Laucala barrier reef

When: Dive recommended at low tide

16 CORNER

What: This dive is a gradual drop off with a wall at the end. The amazing coral heads come up to about 5m where divers weave between and you will find a perfect location for safety stops. Marine life is full of wrasses, Moray-eel, clown trigger fish, Eagle-ray and sharks including Sleeping Leopards.

Where: This site is located on the Laucala barrier reef 5 min boat ride away

When: Best time to dive is at falling tide

17 MYSTERY REEF

What: Named after it's hard to find location... This wall dive is about the size of a football field. The top of the reef is about 10m and drops to about 900m. You will find giant Grouper fish, probably weighing in at about 70-80kg and schools of Barracuda. Also seen there are Dogtooth tuna, giant Gorgonian fans, sea whips and many healthy hard coral

Where: A 25m boat ride in the middle of Laucala, Nanuku and the Ring Golds.

When: Dive on falling tide

18 D.M.F

What: This wall is amazing and marine life includes soft coral and the end of the dive after seeing a range Trevally, tuna, sea fans, sea whip and schools of Barracuda.

Where: At the bottom end of Mystery reef

When: Dive at incoming tide

19 FINGERS

What: Nice and easy shallow dive. The reef sticks out like fingers where divers can swim in and through and light penetrates on the reef through the cracks. Depths range from 5-15m. Marine life found includes white tip sharks, sting ray, turtles, fans and healthy hard coral

Where: A 5 min boat ride from D.M.F and 30min from Laucala located inside the barrier reef of Millers Mystery Reef

When: Diving at any tide is great

20 RED WALL

What: This Lagoon has very calm waters next to a sand bank and is very good for surface intervals and snorkeling. Good second dive after D.M.F. Depths range from 5-15m covered with Red Gorgonian fans. You will find turtles and lots of sharks and Groupers.

Where: Located close to Fingers dive site in a lagoon only 30min from Laucala

When: Dive at rising tide

21 GROUPER VILLA

What: This site has a flat sandy patch which meets up with a wall depth of 10-60m. Amongst the giant Grouper and a variety of hard coral you can see Cod, Barracuda, Rainbow runners, Hammer head, Moray eel and Eagle-rays.

Where: A 5 min boat ride from D.M.F site located inside the barrier reef

When: Dive at falling tide

22 YELLOW WALL

What: With beautiful swim through areas it's a gradual drop off with depths ranging from 5-200m. The name stems from the wall at 15-30m which is covered with yellow coral. Marine life includes Wrasses, schools of Parrot fish, tuna, sweet lips, Moray, sharks.

Where: A 5 min boat ride from D.M.F site located inside the barrier reef

When: Dive at rising tide

23 AMAZE

What: Amazing... With depths ranging from 10-60m and great visibility of 20-30m you will find tons of fish including Mackerel, Barracuda, Jack-Trevally and sharks (usually in schools). Nice shallow reef at the end of the dive where it is very good for safety stops.

Where: Located outside of Laucala barrier reef on a 10min boat ride

When: Dive at rising tide

24 CANYONS

What: Numerous caverns and caves make up this lovely adventure at depths between 5-30m and at 10-12m there are swim through areas like canyons. Marine life consists of white tip sharks in the tunnels, Cod, Mackerel, turtles, Angel fish, schools of Parrot fish and very healthy hard and soft coral.

Where: Located outside the Laucala barrier reef 8min by boat

When: Dive at high tide

25 PLAYGROUND

What: It's a wall dive ranging from 5-900m. On this dive site you are greeted by schools of Barracuda and Jacks. Furthermore you will see sting rays, different sharks including hammer heads, Groupers, there will always be Clown trigger fish, Angel fish, Cod, Mackerel, tuna and lots of Pelagics that swim by.

Where: A 25 min boat ride away from Laucala

When: Dive at rising tide