Italy's iconic wine. Need we say more ? Ok we will provide a little tasting note ! A soft and delicious red with dried fruits, spice and mushroom and hints of herbs. Full-bodied, silky and velvety.

But its oh so much more than that.

£250.00

SPAIN & PORTUGAL

The Iberian peninsula is home to some of the great wines. Rioja and Ribera del Duero produce world class reds in particular.

Less well known, perhaps, in this country, are the wines of Priorat, a wild untamed area where the steep stoney soil is challenging in the extreme. Also worth consideration is the full flavoured red wine, made from Port grapes, we list from the famous Port house of Ramos Pinto!

WHITES

#50 Bodegas Muerza Blanco, Rioja, Spain

Fresh, light, clean and attractive with floral, pineapple and grapefruit aromas.

£19.95

#51 Orbalo Albarino, Spain

Aromas of stone fruit, honey, and floral notes mingling with wild herbs, sweeter mandarin skin and apple. Generous on the palate with hints of textural ripe gala melon, minerality, and a fresh citrus. The mineral and fruity character from the Arantei grapes is balanced by the freshness of the Taboexa grapes.

£32.50

REDS

#52 Duas Quintas tinto, Ramos Pinto, Douro, Portugal

A deliciously tasty blend of the grapes used for making Port. This is red wine though, full and lithe, (like at the Lyth !!) it complements steak or game pie brilliantly.

£27.50

#53 Crianza, "Cal Pla", Celler de Joan Sangeris, Priorat

A wild and intense part of Northern Spain where winemaking is a vocation and a challenge.

Steep, stony land ensures tiny harvests, everything by hand. We salute this labour of love and hope you enjoy the redcurrant and blackcurrant fruit soft tannins and lingering finish

£36.00

#54 Ontanon Rioja Reserve, Spain

Deep, dark fruit flavours combined with ample acidity, minerality and earthy notes. It has a fine structure and natural grape tannins to give good length and weight.

£38.50

#55 Reserva Ribera del Duero, Prios Maximus, Spain

What do you want in a wine? If it's a mature, full, intense, structured, balanced wine with hints of raspberry, cassis, cacao, cayenne pepper and cinnamon then look no further!

£59.00

More very interesting wines from around Europe (and the Lebanon)! (and England !!)

WHITES

#60 The English House, Medium Dry, Three Choirs, Gloucestershire, U.K.

Fly the flag! A surprisingly succulent, ripe and fruity wine, in which you will not be disappointed.

£23.50

#61 Riesling Trocken, S.A. Prum, Mosel, Germany

Aah, delightful. Lime and minerally with ripe soft fruit and a good lick of acidity making this one of the best food wines on the list. Try it with chicken, seafood or anything with a touch of spice.

£28.00

#62 Gruner Veltliner, Josef Ehmoser, Austria

Or Gru - Vee as we trendsetters know it. Austria's native grape, akin to Riesling but not as floral and a little leaner and dryer. Great with starters or fresh fish.

£29.50

REDS

#63 Feteasca Negra, Alamina, Romania

Yes, it was a new one on me too! Romanian grape variety, handled with 21st century winemaking know how, equates to a grand mouthful of ripe, dark and fairly full bodied red.

£23.50

#64 Pinot Noir Reserve, Oliver Zeter, Pfalz, Germany

Currently The trendiest and coolest country from which to select ones Pinot Noir (so I'm told)
The climate lends itself perfectly to capture the aromatic charms of the grape

£49.50

#65 Gold label, Massaya winery, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon 2009

Beautiful blend of Grenache, Mourvedre & Syrah from the cradle of wine making. These guys make wine in challenging conditions to say the least. But what brilliant results, an assault of the senses with dense and intense flavours that linger long on the palate it is a magnificent effort.

£59.00

AUSTRALIA & NEWZEALAND

WHITES

#70 Listening station Chardonnay, Australia

Prominent tangerine notes on the nose, and this vintage also shows intense grapefruit, lime and hints of spice. Refreshingly unoaked, citrus and white peach flavours combine with a zesty fresh acidity and a clean, bright and linear mineral finish.
