Les Mélanges Classiques

Fujian Oolong - Tie Guan Yin

Probably China's most famous oolong tea, this "Tie Guan Yin" is renowned for its exceptional fragrance.

Lover's Leap Estate Pekoe

Beautifully even leaf, with olive flecks, hinting at the high elevation at which this exceptional tea was grown. When brewed, the leaves unfurl and acquire jade green hues as they release their own aroma and flavor. The result is clear amber liquor with refreshing characters.

Rilhena Estate Ceylon Souchong

A powerful tea exhibiting a twisted, dark brown leaf. When infused the tea evolves into a chocolate coloured infusion with a piquant and lightly smoky aroma. The amber liquor that is produced offers a robust and very unusual liquid.

Ceylon Artisanal Spiced Chai

An authentic chai recipe that combines artisanal clove, ginger, cinnamon and lemon grass with a medium strength Ceylon single estate tea produces a very unique natural chai.

Darjeeling TGFOP

The most majestic amongst Indian teas, Darjeeling tea is grown in the foothills of the Himalayas. It is composed of leaf that is light brown, flecked with olive green.

Dombagastalawa Estate BOP

An even black leaf in a larger broken orange pekoe style known as BOP special, when infused the tea evolves into a dark coppery brown infusion. A medium bodied tea with a noble personality.

Imboolpitiya Estate FBOP

Dark, ebony colored flowery broken pekoe leaf with wiry, even appearance. When infused the leaf evolves into a coppery infusion tinged with olive and herbal aroma.
