To commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Partagas family of cigars, founded by Jaime Partagas in 1845 in Havana, Cuba, this amazing and historic cigar is highly sought after and rarely found. Ramon Cifuentes, patriarch of the Partagas family in 1995, decided to use the only verifiable bail of Cameroon West African wrapper from the first crop grown there in 1978.

1940 GURKHA SHAGGIES

rosado wrapper

150

Introduced in 2001 as part of a 350-box cache, this incredible smoke has history galore! The "shaggy" construction was created to expose the filler leaves and binder to the most wary of consumers. Tale has it that this was to unmask counterfeiters of cigars, not in 2000 but in 1940! Even then, "Fake Cubans" were everywhere! Remember you must trim the mustache before you light!
