

On August 1, 1928 Banff's most famous pioneer, The Canadian Pacific Railway's trail guide Tom Wilson, officially opened the first nine holes of the new Banff Springs Hotel Golf Course with this Tudor-style building as its second clubhouse. It was built to commemorate the opening of the Stanley Thompson designed golf course completed in the following summer of 1929. Located below the Banff Springs Hotel, the clubhouse serviced the original opening 1st tee which is now the 15th tee. The original clubhouse, built in 1911 was located between today's 13th and 17th tees next to the Bow River. In 1989, with the opening of the current clubhouse, it was transformed into an Alpine-styled restaurant named The Waldhaus, meaning "house in the forest."

Local Facts

There are many Elk around the park and even some that like to hang around the castle! Did you know the average male elk weighs 330kg, which is the same weight as 165, 000 jelly beans!

Here at the castle we like our eggs! The hotel, at its busiest will use over 10,000 eggs per week! That's no EGGxageration.

In early 2017, bison have returned to Banff National Park. A total of 16 bison were helicoptered in to Banff for a historic homecoming after 140 years. Despite their size, bison are very fast creatures that are able to run up to 55 kilometers per hour!
