SOMMELIER SELECTION

We understand that browsing through our extensive list can be a daunting prospect. For that reason, here's a small selection of our favourite wines.

WHITE

- Cantina Goccia 'd'Oro', Grechetto, Puglia, Italy 2016 £39.00
- Perfect easy sipper. Light, bright, clean and refreshing. Zesty lemon and underripe white peach notes.
- Seresin 'Memento' Riesling, Marlborough, New Zealand 2012 £45.00
- Always a classic, but from a region known for Sauvignon Blanc. Floral and chalky aromas with a hint of beeswax. A brilliant balance of sweetness and acidity precede a long, harmonious finish.
- Benanti 'Etna Bianco', Carricante, Sicily, Italy 2015 £58.00
- Benanti is a pioneer on Italys' southern tip, producing wines with fierce volcanic minerality and rich texture. The wine is challenging but can produce world class pairings with fish.
- Mchenry Honnen 'Rocky Road', Chardonnay, Margret River, Australia 2012 £65.00
- From the creator of Cloudy Bay, this stunning chardonnay is perfect for autumn. As the nights roll in cosy down with this rich, toasty nutty wonder and let your troubles melt away.
- Au Bon Climat 'Hildegard', Pinot Gris/Pinot Blanc/Aligoté, California, USA 2013 £74.00
- Paying homage to the forgotten grapes of Burgundy. Jim Clendenen has been breaking hearts with this show-stopping wine unlike any other. Chardonnay in disguise, weighty in body with hints of banoffe pie, buttered crust and a length that will carry you long into tomorrow.
- Alheit Vineyards 'Cartology', Chenin Blend, Western Cape, South Africa 2015 £82.00
- Vanilla poached white peaches and sweet buttered popcorn. Touches of underripe fruit and delicate nutmeg notes show this wines potential to age. However it is both complex and lean in its early years.
- Wienbach 'Cuvée Theo', Gewütztraminer, Alsace, France 2012 £90.00
- A great cult Alsace estate. Theo expresses classic lychee, mango and papaya fruits with wet heather and exotic sweet and pungent spices. Rich oily texture and full body with flavours that go on and on and on and, well you get the idea.
- Mayacamas, Chardonnay, Napa Valley, California 2014 £130.00
- One of the first established wineries in California in the late 19th century, it has had an interesting life of different owners and disrepair. However it has stood the test of time as a Napa staple. Buttered toast and hazlenuts with ripe nectarine and apricot fruits.

SOMMELIER SELECTION

We understand that browsing through our extensive list can be a daunting prospect. For that reason, here's a small selection of our favourite wines.

RED

- Plan B 'GT', Cabernet Blend, Western Australia 2015 £38.00
- Full with dense black forest fruits and bitter red berries. Mouth-filling, but a shot of residual acidity lifts the palate to add a refreshing edge.
- Seresin 'Leah', Pinot Noir, Marlborough, New Zealand 2014 £46.00
- Fragrant berry-fruit aromas, interlaced with spice and herbal notes. This wine is focused and concentrated, with a succulent fruit core, framed by fine-grained tannins and a mouth-watering acidity.
- San Polo, Rosso di Montalcino, Sangiovese, Tuscany, Italy 2014 £52.00
- Sangiovese in its most delicate form. It has a light to medium body with hedgerow fruits but with a gamey finish making it feel like serious red wine. Good for meat, fish combos.
- Cifra, Cabernet Franc, Toscana, Italy 2013 £56.00
- Jam packed with black berry fruits, black pepper spice and a bold gamey finish. Great with game and mushrooms.
- Duckhorn Vineyards 'Decoy', Zinfandel, Sonoma County, USA 2013 £72.00
- A rich and rustic beauty with notes of black forest gâteau and pastry encased blueberries.
- Greenock Creek 'Cornerstone', Grenache, Barossa, Australia 2014 £79.00
- "One spicy meatball", strawberry leaf and raspberry fruits with a whole pantry of spices.
- Cornas, 'Brisse Callioux' Coulet, Syrah, Rhône Valley, France 2008 £98.00
- Cornas is known locally for making the most powerful wines in the area but time has tamed this beast. Fresh from the stable with a hefty dose of game and wet hay, this wine is all rhone. Sour red cherries, green strawberries and cola bottles. Full with a long smooth finish. A must for meat lovers.
- Alter Ego de Palmer, Cabernet Blend, Margaux, Bordeaux, France 2013 £130.00
- Our pick of Bordeaux second labels from a true giant. Blackberry leaf and fresh tanned leather with fruit compot and a luscious finish.

Organic & Biodynamic

Below are a list of our chosen producers who aren't necessarily certified as biodynamic or organic but who do however work using said principals. In complying to these guidelines, each producer is credited with the ability of accurately farming sustainably not only through vineyard management but as a way of life.

WHITE

- OB Civitas Lunaria, Pecorino, Abruzzo, Italy 2015 £39.00
- Luscious notes of confit lemon, glazed honey and apricot give this perfumed wine an unexpected twist.
- OB Pierre Frick, Chasselas, Alsace, France 2015 £49.00
- A classic Swiss variety hailing from Alsace. Smooth and complex with a long and satisfying finish.
- OB Chene Blue, Viognier, Valcluse, France 2014 £60.00
- Chene are a real conscious producer. They are always offering back to the environment and thinking of lifestyle, their wines are also vegetarian. Ripe papaya and melon.

RED

- OB Sepp Moser, Zweigelt, Neusiedlersee, Austria 2013 £58.00
- A qwerky little gem. This wine has light to medium body with blackcurrant, heather and game notes with a refreshing finish.
- O Chateau Beaucastel, Grenache Blend, Chateauneuf-du-Pape, Rhone, France 2012 £105.00
- From the famous family Perrin, this outstanding CNDP estate has taken quality to the extremes and really focuses on sustainability and natural health in the vineyard.
- OB Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Pinot Noir, Echezeaux, Burgundy, France 2000 £740.00
- Arguably the world's most famous bio-dynamic estate. This wine speaks for itself.

O - In the late 1930s and early 1940s and his wife Gabrielle, both accomplished botanists, developed organic agriculture. The Howards were influenced by their experiences with traditional farming methods in India as well as biodynamics and their formal scientific education. Sir Albert Howard is widely considered to be the "father of organic farming" because he was the first to apply scientific knowledge and principles to these more traditional and natural methods.

B - The development of biodynamic agriculture began in 1924 with a series of eight lectures as was given by philosopher Rudolf Steiner. Better recognised as a furthered form of organic farming, Bio-dynamic culture refers to the ways in which "a holistic understanding of agricultural processes" are better understood. Loire vigneron Nicholas Joly was one of the earliest enthusiasts of the biodynamic movement and it has since spread all over the world.

WINE NOT...

A selection of three outstanding wines which showcase France at its best. Chosen by us, for you.
Available by the glass with thanks to the CoraVin system.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape 'Réserve des Célestins', Henri Bonneau 2006

Not only are Bonneau's wines fantastically complex, immense and capable of decades worth of development but they are also enriched with that rare and magical sense of extra dimension found only in the greatest of wines. Particularly the Réserve des Célestins. Henri

Bonneau represents the 12th generation of his family to make wine in Châteauneuf du Pape. Dating back to 1667, his methods continue to have more in common with the 17th century than with contemporary winemaking.

Château Angelus, Premier Grand Cru Classé, St-Emilion 2010

An absolutely spectacular wine from this estate. Run with meticulous precision by Hubert de Bouard whose family have been the proprietors of Château Angelus since 1544. Offering up a beautiful smorgasbord of aromas ranging from blueberry pie to espresso, white chocolate, creme de cassis, liquorice, truffle and a touch of lead pencil shavings. There is even a floral underpinning to this highly-scented and full-bodied wine. Rich and layered with moderately high tannin there is also an element of sweetness which is incredibly well-integrated, as is the oak. Just enough acidity provides delineation to this truly spectacular wine.

Vosne-Romanée 1^{er} Cru 'En Orveaux', Sylvain Cathiard, Burgundy 2002

Sylvain Cathiard is the archetypal Burgundian producer. Working the family domaine, established by his grandfather in the 1930s, with his wife Marinette and son Sébastien. Cathiard has 4.2 hectares of vines spread around 11 plots. This includes a 0.17 hectare plot of Romanée St Vivant with the majority of the holdings in Vosne-Romanée. The wines from this modest producer are highly sought after and quite rightly so. Classic dirty earthy Pinot with exceptionally juicy core fruit and silky tannins. A must for Burgundy and Pinot lovers alike.

*The CoraVin is an ingenious piece of technology that allows us to access a wine without pulling the cork. A needle simply pierces the cork and allows us to remove the wine whilst also replacing it with argon, an inert gas. This keeps the wine fresh without interrupting the aging process. "I can't live without it".

This is a big Pouilly-Fumé! Elegant and smooth with a huge flinty character. Plus, with a touch of barrel aging it develops spice and warmth that is perfect with pasta for lunch.

If you're looking for a wine with a story, this is it! Randall Graham has produced a lively, exciting blend with some bright Syrah spice reminiscent of the Rhône. Why so quirky? Ask the Sommelier about the 'Alien' law in Châteauneuf-du-Pape.

This gorgeous, yet unusual wine from the 'Eastern Realm' is perfect for light game dishes and lamb. With velvety tannins, a healthy dose of red cherry jam and some superb earthy base notes it is one to try if you are a lover of all reds light and elegant.

"Think bright, fresh strawberry juice and cooked rhubarb drizzled in honey, with a touch of rose just to top off this absolute corker of a pudding wine. Whether you have chocolate tart or ice cream or nothing, this Canadian gem is going to blow you away."
