

WALDHEIM ALPINE SPA
cradle mountain

Vitality and beauty are gifts of nature

The Waldheim Alpine Spa at Cradle Mountain Lodge is a warm and inviting day spa nestled amidst the spectacular Tasmanian wilderness. Overlooking fresh mountain springs and surrounded by towering King Billy pines, the Waldheim Alpine Spa reflects the pure and natural beauty of the Tasmanian highlands.

As you step through the door, a haven of harmonious textures and elements welcome you into a tranquil space of well appointed rooms and relaxation areas with views over the pristine Pencil Pine River. Our private sanctuary, available upon booking, features a dry heat sauna, wet steam room, large outdoor hot tub and cool vitality pool.

Curated rituals and therapies have been created with your wellbeing and delight in mind. While highly skilled therapists, trained in time honored customs and highly specialised techniques, tune into your individual needs so as to personalize your spa experience and respond to the ever evolving rhyme of your life.

Our exclusive skincare range by ELEMIS, has more than 25 years of wisdom inspiring its pioneering formulas, where spa meets science, meets skin. Unique treatment sequences and age defying facials address specific skin and body conditions to produce visible results, whilst re-awakening the senses.

Offering the only destination spa and wellness experience within this stunning World Heritage Area, the Waldheim Alpine Spa transports you into a space so beautiful and rejuvenating that your senses will be left in wonder long after your journey here ends.
