OSCAR WILDE BAR

FORMERLY THE GRILL ROOM, ESTABLISHED 1865

Formerly the Grill Room and originally established in 1865, this stunning room has been restored exquisitely to its original Louis XVI detailing and renamed, in tribute to its most famous patron, as the Oscar Wilde Bar.

Nestled between the elegance of Mayfair and the creativity of Soho, the Oscar Wilde Bar is the space where great minds came together to change the world. It is in this very room that Oscar Wilde fell in love with Lord Alfred Douglas, Aubrey Beardsley debated with Whistler, David Bowie retired Ziggy Stardust and Mick Jagger, The Beatles and Elizabeth Taylor danced the night away.

Relive a golden era and enjoy this decadent English tradition in the spectacular surroundings of the Oscar Wilde Bar.

Tisanes

Triple Mint

A combination of wild Jordanian mint, British black peppermint and water mint that gives an incredible depth and a clean, bright flavour. The mix of spearmint and peppermint will cool and refresh the palate.

Lemongrass & Ginger

Aromatic stalks of lemongrass blended with spicy ginger and sweet liquorice. This blend is warming, comforting, spicy and moreish.

British Forager's Blend

A glorious celebration of the variety of the British hedgerow. Hawthorn flowers and leaves lend a floral sweetness, the hips of the wild rose add colour and a soft rounded taste, the nettles a deeper, greener flavour and wild strawberry leaf brings a fragrant fruit note.

Red Berry & Hibiscus

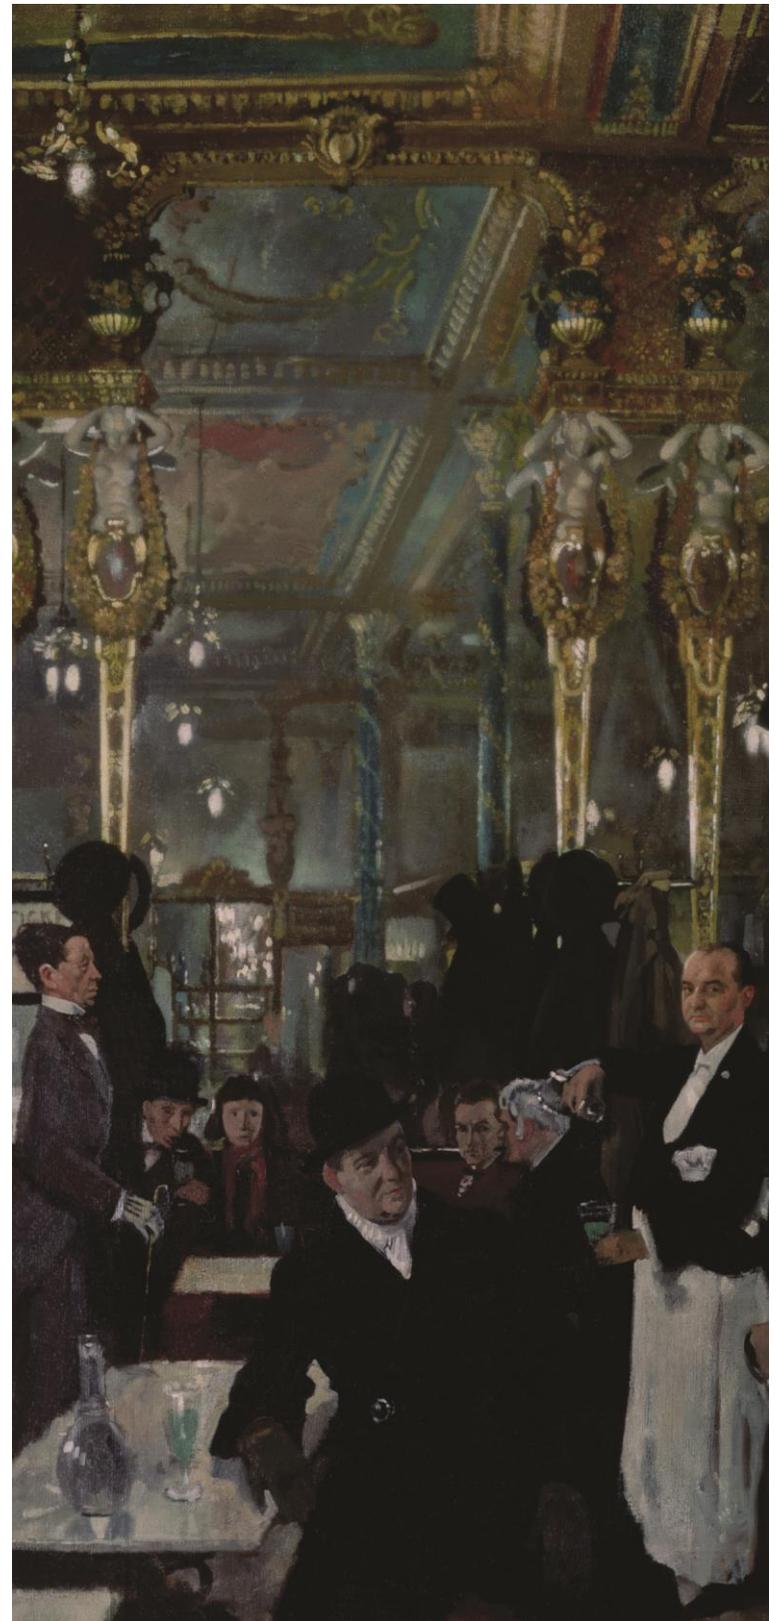

A stunning scarlet infusion of hibiscus blossoms, elderberries, rose-hip petals and elderflowers which yield intense soft fruit flavours.

Exclusive Blends & Teas

Green Teas

Jasmine Pearls

Soft, young Chinese green tea leaves are hand rolled in pearls and infused over several nights with layers of fresh jasmine flowers to develop the fragrant natural Jasmine taste. This tea captures the delicacy of the flowers without overwhelming the sweet, creamy softness of the green tea.

Jade Tips

These green tea leaves grow high in the cool misty mountain air of Fujian and are picked young. It has a clean, refreshing vegetal taste and a long lasting, pleasingly sweet aftertaste.

Oolongs

Iron Buddha

Iron Buddha is China's most famous and popular Oolong tea. The leaves are hand rolled into the classic 'fisted' balls of a traditional rolled Oolong. The taste is fruity, floral and sweet.

Puerh Tea

2010 White Dragon Loose Puerh Tea

This superb Puerh is made from the highest grade leaves in Puerh city itself - Simao. The leaves are known for their small, tippy quality which makes them taste extra sweet.

Exclusive Blends & Teas

Exclusive Blends

Oscar

An authentic and historic Lapsang Souchong. Rich, complex, sophisticated. Lightly smoked over pine, it has wonderful woody, campfire notes and autumn fruit flavours.

Named after Oscar Wilde. This is a masculine tea which reflects the complex, sophisticated man who was admired and loved by many for his brilliance and wit, but persecuted by others for his lifestyle.

Celestine

Two soft Chinese black teas with organic vanilla pod make an indulgent and sensuous infusion. Flavours of plum from the black tea complemented with sweet, fragrant vanilla.

Named after the wife of the founder of Café Royal who had a great influence on its style. The tea is strong and sophisticated, made sweet by the vanilla and feminine with the pretty cornflowers.

Golden Caryatid

Black Tea from Yunnan Province, China, is hand-rolled into individual 'pearls'. The tea leaves are flecked with golden highlights and give a satisfying rich, sweet, smooth, malty infusion.

Inspired by the gold Caryatid's around the ceiling of the Oscar Wilde Bar. The round tea pearls are flaked with gold and gracefully unravel in hot water.

Queensberry

A refreshing herbal infusion that is light and naturally caffeine free uplifting and energizing at any time of the day. Citrus hints of lemon softened by fennel and sweetened by liquorice root.

Named not after the Marquis of Queensberry, but for Bosey, his son and the lover of Oscar Wilde. Bosey, was refreshingly unconventional and this herbal infusion is bright, colourful and appealing.

Exclusive Blends & Teas

Black Teas

1865 Blend

A specially designed blend of Assam Black Tea (India), Kenya Black Tea (Africa) Rwanda Black Tea (Africa) Yunnan Dian Hong (China).

A traditional English Breakfast tea that is smooth, brisk, robust, malty and dark. Great with or without milk.

Earl Grey

A classic Earl Grey made from black tea infused with the best Italian Bergamot oil. The taste is fragrant with citrus notes of bergamot and studded with pretty cornflowers. Robust enough to take with milk if desired.

Darjeeling

The champagne of black teas. A classic Second Flush Darjeeling from the organically certified Arya Estate. Light, bright, refreshing and rounded, with a golden liquor. Ideal without milk.

St James Estate Ceylon

The St James Estate is one of the most famous tea estates in Sri Lanka, producing some seriously good black tea. This one is typical of the Uva region - robust and flavorful.

Khongea Assam Gold

A blend of two, high grade, Khongea Estate. It gives a strong, dark liquor that is smooth and rich with notes of fruit. Not heavily malty, but brisk and full-bodied making it a classic breakfast tea which works well with or without milk.
